Pinnacles Day Tour

In geologic terms the pinnacles are a modern phenomenon that started as recently as three and a half million years ago and were formed somewhere between two million and twenty thousand years ago.

Now that is astonishing!

Experience a great day combining visiting the Pinnacles and seeing other amazing natural landscapes. Encounter pristine white sand dunes, spectacular coastal vistas, valleys with masses of grass trees and see kangaroos in their natural environment.

Visit Pinnacles Desert Discovery Interpretive Centre. We drive into the Pinnacles Desert, travel the four kilometre trail for a unique experience to walk among this stunning phenomenon. The Pinnacles Desert is made up of thousands of limestone pillars, resembling an ancient ruin.

Before lunch at Cervantes, we visit Hangover Bay to see pristine white beaches and sparkling aquamarine waters of the Indian Ocean. Go for a walk along the beach. During summer take your bathers and towel and go for a refreshing swim. Enjoy a visit to Lake Thetis to view Stromatolites, which are one of the earliest forms of life to evolve on our planet another of nature's wonders

Tour Price $220.00 per person - Includes Morning tea, entry Nambung National Park, Pinnacles Dessert, light lunch.
Tour departs - Tuesday , Thursday, Saturday 7am return 5pm.

New Norcia Day Tour

You will be treated to a unique view of Australia's only monastic town, home to a community of Benedictine Monks. A blend of Spanish architecture, European art treasures, pioneer history in the Western Australian bushland.

New Norcia was established as a Benedictine mission for the aboriginal Nyoongar people of the Yuat tribe and evolved over time to become a self-sufficient community dedicated to the education of outback children and later a centre for ecclesiastical art and culture in Western Australia. Today New Norcia is famous not only for its Benedictine community, but as a living museum and centre for warm monastic hospitality.

On a guided walking tour of the town you visit the Monks old and new chapels, the Abbey Church, Education Centre, St Gertrude's and St Ildephonsus colleges.

Spend time browsing the museum and art gallery containing paintings by Spanish and Italian masters, priceless manuscripts and religious artefacts.

New Norcia is famous for its bread, Nut Cake and Pan Chocolatti as well as award winning olive oil and quality wine.

We give you an insight to New Norcia not experienced by other visitors to this unique heritage town.

Tour Price $165.00 per person - Includes Morning tea, entry museum, art gallery and tour of town, light lunch.
Tours departs - Monday Thursday Saturday 8.15am return 5.00pm.
